
School update & online classes available

Hi _____,

Classes have been in session for 3 weeks now at Teleo Missions Bible School. We're excited to share some updates.

- What a great class God has made possible for this year!
- The Stateline Seventh-day Adventist Church has been fantastic to work with...so supportive and happy to have the students and staff here.
- Every Sabbath afternoon this month, the students are helping the Hermiston Church find Bible study interests as part of their training and outreach.
- 8 students are currently attending full time.
- For the next two weeks students will take a closer look at fundamental Biblical beliefs. What does the Bible really say?
- We have been going through Steps to Christ in our morning worships and Ministry of Healing in the evening worships. These are such practical books to enrich our lives and draw us closer to Jesus.

Yes, I believe in what God is doing and want to support a student.

Some Online Classes Soon Available

Eric Wilson, with Isaiah Ministries, will be teaching three different topics from September 4-17. Practically speaking, Eric will address how to gain a living experience with God, and His power in your life, rather than simply having a “form of godliness,” without the living reality.

Good news! All of Eric Wilson’s classes will be available in person or online. Some people just can’t come to Walla Walla, WA and would like to experience or help others experience freedom and restoration in their lives. So, take advantage of this opportunity and join us!
